From the President

My time as president of EVAA is rapidly coming to a close and I will transition into doing workshops. I want to thank everyone for your support and the extra efforts you made to make the association a stronger and more viable artist organization. I think the programs and workshops have been great... and I can say that because I attended most of them. We will continue to work on finding a place where we can hold our spring and fall art shows and I'm hoping our future workshops will match those you've come to appreciate. Thank you Rita Elkins for taking on the job of president, I know you will do a great job.

Thanks again for everyone's support.

Workshops

From EVAA's outgoing Workshop Chairperson, Gini Goldie

Well, on Saturday, May 30th, we really had a delightful final EVAA workshop of the 2008-2009 season - thanks to Hillary Gonzales. Her book-making class was challenging for some of us as we learned G,E & Wcut & folds of accordion books and then various stitching bindings for bound books

- though some students really amazed us with their creative efforts. There were about 16 of us what braved those crazy May Monsoons which included mid-afternoon hail. One big ice rock hit our president, Wayne St. John, on top of his head - maybe it's a good thing he is ending his reign as president - who knows what he is liable to have us to do after that!

Seriously, Wayne has been a great president and I think all of you can look forward to some really special workshops next year as he will be taking over as Workshop Chairperson. Remember that EVAA does not want anyone to miss out on any workshop because of cost and there are two half price scholarships available for every workshop. So I hope to see you all next season at one or more of our wonderful EVAA workshops.

The photos from the workshop are once again courtesy of Judith Robinson, who takes time out of her class experience to record our creative efforts..... thank you Judith.

Opportunities to Show Your Art

- We also have the privilege of hanging 3 paintings a month at the Northern AZ Rehabilitation & Fitness, the change out day will be the Wednesday before each meeting. For further info call Brenda Strom at 649-1705 or email bren@surfmk.com.
